

Workshop on monitoring

EUROPE-INBO 2013

From fulfilling the WFD requirements to actual implementation and uses of results of monitoring.

November 13, 2013, Plovdiv, Bulgaria

Provisional Agenda

AGENDA
Timings	Contents	Speaker
09:30 10:00	Registration and Welcome coffee
	PART I: Introduction
	Welcoming address	France, Mr. Philippe Dupont, Director of science and technology department of Onema – 10' Bulgaria, Mr. Nikola Karnolski, Director of East Aegean basin directorates – 10'
	Outcomes and results of the first reporting exercise and major stakes for the two next WFD cycles.	Mr. Thomas Petitguyot, COM (online) – 15'+5' for questions
10:00 – 12:00	Feedback on the use by EEA of the results of the first reporting on monitoring in the current EEA policy and tools for water policy implementation	Ms. Beatte Werner, EEA (online) – 15'+5' for questions
	Status, problems and proposals for improving planning and implementation of the monitoring for the 2nd RBMPs	Bulgarian Ministry of Environment and Water Directorates – 15'+5' questions
	Swedish Lessons learned from monitoring in WFD cycle I and II	Ms. Ulrika Stensdotter Blomberg, Swedish Water Agency for Marine and Water Management – 15'+5' for questions
	Presentation of the general issues that must be discussed later in the workshop based on French experience	Ms. Mauricette Steinfelder, Ministry of ecology and sustainable development, FR – 15'+5' for questions

12:00 – 17:00	PART II: Working sessions
	A- Purpose of monitoring programmes
12:00 – 13 :15	Introductory presentation	Mr. Gerrit Vossebelt, Risjkwaterstaat, NL – 15' (tbc)
	Discussions organised around 3 questions	All participants per table – 45'
	Key messages to be delivered by each table	rapporteur of each table – 15'
13 :15 14 :15	Lunch break
	B- Organisation and the role of actors
14 :15 15 :30	Introductory presentation "Water Framework Directive compliance monitoring in Austria; experiences and outlook"	Ms. Karin Deutsch, Ministry of Life, AT – 15'
	Discussions organised around 3 questions	All participants per table – 45'
	Key messages to be delivered by the rapporteur	rapporteur of each table – 15'
15:30 15:45	Coffee break
	C- Monitoring strategies
15 :45 – 17 :00	Introductory presentation "Surveillance networks evolutions in Wallonia since 1975 through various European Directives"	Mr. Pierre Nicolas Libert, Public Service of Wallonia, BE – 15'
	Discussions organised around 3 questions	All participants per table – 45'
	Key messages to be delivered by the rapporteur	rapporteur of each table – 15'

	PART III: Sharing sessions results and final discussions
17:00 17:30	Discussions and identification of questions/stakes to be addressed in the future	All participants – 15'
	Overall Conclusion	Bulgaria, France – 15'

Working language will be English.

Outcomes of this workshop will be presented during one plenary session of the EUROPE-INBO Conference on 14 or 15 of November 2013.